

UNITED STATES TIES TO JAPAN

Agreement Signed Covering
Policies of the Two Governments in the Pacific.

CHINA IS ALSO INCLUDED

DECLARATION CONSISTS OF FIVE SPECIFIC ARTICLES.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Despite official reticence, information from reliable sources has been obtained of an agreement of far-reaching importance between the United States and Japan covering the policies of the two countries of the Pacific. The agreement is based on the idea of encouraging and deterring free and peaceful commercial development in that ocean. It contains not only a mutual guarantee to respect each other's territorial possessions there, but defines the attitude of the two countries toward China, binding each to defend by every peaceful means China's independence and integrity, and to give equal commercial opportunity to the Chinese empire to all nations. More important still, the agreement, in the event of complications threatening the status quo, binds the United States and Japan to consult each other with a view to acting together.

Agreement as Drawn Up.

This agreement has been drawn up in the form of a declaration, and consists of five articles, of which the following is a faithful description:

The first article gives expression to the wish of the two governments to encourage the free and peaceful development of their commerce in the Pacific. The second is a mutual disclaimer of an aggressive design, and contains also a definition of the policy of each government, both as directed to the maintenance of the existing status quo in the Pacific, and the defense of the people of equal opportunity for commerce and industry in China. The third article contains a statement of the consequent firm reciprocal resolution of each government to respect the territorial possessions in the Pacific of the other. In the fourth article, the United States and Japan express their determination, "in the common interest of all the powers," to support "by all peaceful means at their disposal" the independence and integrity of China and the principle of equal commercial and industrial opportunity for all nations in the empire. The fifth article mutually pledges the two governments, in the case of the occurrence of any event threatening the status quo as above described, or the principle of equal opportunity as above designed, to communicate with each other for the purpose of arriving at an understanding with regard to the measures they may consider useful to take.

REPORT OF SPERRY.

Hospital Ship Relief Damaged During Fierce Typhoon.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Secretary McCall today received a cablegram from Admiral Sperry, giving an account of the storm met by the hospital ship Relief, and the damage done to that vessel. On the afternoon of Nov. 18 the Relief got in the track of a typhoon while on its way from Manila to the island of Guam, and was unable to run away from it. The barometer registered the almost unprecedented condition indicated by 28.10. While disabled, the Relief rolled heavily. Four feet of water was found in the forehold. Seven fires started at one time as the result of short circuits on the electric wires, and it was necessary to shut down the dynamo. Other lights could not be made to burn in the engine room on account of the spray and draught, and the ship was left in utter darkness. Both the low pressure and intermediate pressure eccentric straps were broken, and there were no spare parts with which to replace them. Other damage was temporarily repaired in three days so that the Relief was able to return to Manila under her own steam. There were no casualties.

Man Accused of Murder of Mrs.
Belle Gunness Taken to Indiana
State Prison.

Laporte, Ind., Nov. 27.—Ray Lamphere, convicted of setting fire to the home of Mrs. Belle Gunness, went to prison today in style. He rode from the interurban station of the prison gate in an automobile. Stopping up to the window of Chief Clerk Lorimer, the sheriff handed the official commitment papers, the prisoner's name was entered at 12:30 p. m. upon the register, he was assigned No. 144, and then passed along to the receiving clerk, who escorted him to the Bertillon room, where he was given a bath, photographed, measured and garbed in the prison suit of gray, the middle grade in which new prisoners are always placed. Upon their future conduct depends whether they are given the stripes or the better grade of blue suits.

Before Lamphere was taken to the state prison in Michigan City this afternoon he was visited by his mother. The aged woman wept as she clasped her son in her arms, but the prisoner bore up well. Attorney Woodson announced today that he would move on Monday for a new trial, and upon the same being denied he expected to perfect an appeal.

The motion for a new trial will be based upon the claim that Judge Richerred in giving the jury instructions that it could render a verdict of arson.

CABINET CRISIS AVERTED

Servian Foreign Minister Convinces
His Colleagues That His Trip
Resulted in Gain

Belgrade, Servia, Nov. 27.—Milanovich, the Servian minister of foreign affairs, who recently returned here from a tour of the capitals of Europe in the interests of his government in the matter of the proposed conference to settle the Balkan situation, seems to have satisfied his ministerial colleagues with the result of his efforts. This outcome probably will avert a cabinet crisis. The foreign minister is anxious to bring about a harmonious understanding. He declares that if the congress does take place, Servia will have no reason to be dissatisfied, as a number of her aspirations will be fulfilled.

Berlin, Nov. 27.—The Balkan situation is considered here to have grown more disquieting. The Austro-Hungarian military preparations are taken to indicate that Austria-Hungary is determined to support her claims at all hazards and that she will promptly crush any attempts on the part of Servia or Montenegro to disturb the peace. In the meantime negotiations for an international congress drag on.

A semi-official announcement made today declares that the German ambassador at Constantinople, Baron von Biebert, pointed out to the sultan during a recent audience that the boycotting of German goods as well as Austrian threats to endanger international relations.

The report that Germany offered to bring about an agreement between Austria-Hungary and Turkey through her ambassador at Constantinople is without foundation.

PEARSON HAS PLENTY OF CASH FOR CHARITY

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 27.—Dr. D. K. Pearson, the millionaire philanthropist of Chicago, about whom a statement was published some days ago that his benefactions had depleted his fortune and left him $450,000 in deficit, is quoted in a morning paper as declaring that the story is all "boosh."

Dr. Pearson is also quoted as saying that he has $3,000,000 to give to educational institutions in this country, which gifts he will begin to bestow next July under certain prescribed conditions.

The philanthropist has been visiting colleges in the west which he has endowed, for several weeks past.

ACTING IN CONCERT.

Russia and Great Britain Jointly
Signed Note to the Shah.

Teheran, Nov. 27.—The last Anglo-Russian note of protest, which induced the shah to rescind his proclamation denying the people a constitution, was signed jointly instead, as in the previous case, of taking the form of identical notes. Despite this convincing proof of the solidarity of the Anglo-Russian agreement, the shah is still fencing with the text of the proclamation of Nov. 22, which is being privately circulated in the provinces with the aim of encouraging reactionary agitation by representing that the projected parliament already is dead.

London, Nov. 27.—The Morning Post in an editorial says that the shah of Persia never will believe in Russia's sincerity until General Llakhoff, military general of Teheran, is recalled.

Reno, Nev., Nov. 27.—That the Wells-Fargo Express company is indebted to the state of Nevada to an amount exceeding $10,000 for failure to pay its tax as a common carrier for twenty-seven years. In three counties of the state, Churchill, Douglas and White Pine, the statement of the newly appointed bullion and tax collector, J. F. Haley, who has returned from a license examination tour of the state. Mr. Haley claiming that a debt to the state never outlawed, has ordered Sheriff Davis of White Pine to bring suit next Monday against the Wells-Fargo company for back taxes. Similar action will be taken in the other counties following the result of the suit in White Pine.

PAYNE REPLIES TO VAN CLEAVE

Willing to Be Judged by People, but Objects to Prophets or Critics.

INVITATION STILL OPEN

HINT THAT THE ST. LOUIS MAN
POSSESSES NO INFORMATION.

Washington, Nov. 27.—"We are fully aware that the bill reported from the committee will be judged by the people not in the light of view of those wise prophets or critics who are judging it in advance, but in the light of what will be learned from the bill itself, and from an examination of the material before the committee."

In these words Sen. Payne, chairman of the house ways and means committee, today replied to the letter of J. W. Van Cleave, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, criticizing the methods pursued in revising the tariff.

"Of course, if you have no information at your disposal which would aid the committee in the formation of a bill, I can understand your refusal to appear. If you have such information, I cannot see why you do not accept the invitation which has been extended to you, and which is still held out to you should you reconsider your determination," concluded Mr. Payne.

What Van Cleave Said.

In his letter to the chairman of the ways and means committee, which was in reply to an invitation to testify at the tariff hearings, Mr. Van Cleave says:

"We would rather bear the ills of the Dingley tariff than to be a party to a tariff revision made in the old manner. To appear before you to plead for certain schedules, would be to acquiesce in the unbusinesslike methods of investigation against which we protest. We have carefully watched all the statements that have been made by you and your associates in recent years and, instead of convincing us of the error of our ways, we are more than ever convinced that your present plans of gathering information on which the revision is proposed to be based is wrong, radically, absurdly, fatally wrong."

Mr. Van Cleave sets forth his views regarding an "expert non-partisan tariff commission," and declares that it is impossible for the ways and means committee in the limited time it has at its disposal to make an inquiry which can furnish an adequate basis for any such tariff as the country demands.

BILLIK'S MOTHER DEAD.

Farwell Letter From Condemned
Murderer Proved Fatal.

Cleveland, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Barbara Billik, mother of Herman Billik, who is under sentence of death at Chicago, died at her home here today. She had suffered from heart trouble and dropsy for several months.

On Wednesday last Mrs. Billik received a farwell letter from her son. When reading this she fell into a faint and was revived only after several hours of unconsciousness. Since then her death had been expected at any moment.

Several months ago Mrs. Billik arranged with an undertaker to bury the bodies of herself and son side by side in a local cemetery.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Herman Billik, under sentence of death on Dec. 11 for the murder of Mary Verall, received a telegram today announcing the death in Cleveland last night of his mother.

Last Wednesday Billik received a letter from his mother declaring her belief in his innocence and in which she said: "I am praying night and day that I may live to see the result of all your child's troubles. I am sending you $2—all I can spare."

The letter was signed: "With a dozen kisses, your heartbroken mother."

Billik was deeply affected by the news of her death.

TRIBUTE TO DEAD PRIEST.

Collieries Shut Down So Men Could Attend the Funeral.

Shenandoah, Pa., Nov. 27.—A most remarkable tribute to a priest was paid today at the funeral of the Rev. H. F. O'Reilly, rector of the Roman Catholic Church of the Annunciation in this place for forty years. Twenty-five collieries, employing more than 15,000 men and boys in the Shenandoah and Mahanoy valleys, were shut down to enable the workers to pay their respects to the dead priest. The public schools here, at Mahanoy City and other surrounding communities were closed and all business in Shenandoah was suspended.

More than 200 priests attended the funeral services. Following the services the body was taken to Philadelphia, accompanied by 1,500 mourners, on a special train.

Father O'Reilly, during the Molly McGuire crusade and in numerous coal strikes, wielded a great influence in behalf of peace and law and order.

DR. PRICE'S WHEAT FLAKE CELERY FOOD

The best food for growing children, invalids and the aged.

Most people would never think of connecting eye disease with the food they eat. But when we remember that every part of the body—every organ—is nourished by the blood and the blood is made of the food we eat, it seems reasonable to trace even eye troubles to food.

A New York man had an interesting experience at one of the great hospitals in that city that may benefit persons who have chronic eye trouble. He writes:

"Four years ago I was stricken with an eye trouble. After being unsuccessfully treated by several physicians and oculists, I went to a noted New York hospital."

"On examination they pronounced my case iritis (inflammation of the iris), caused by poor blood on account of improper assimilation of food."

"They had to operate on my right eye, keeping me in a dark room and on a strict diet for several weeks. When leaving, the doctor cautioned me in regard to saving the other eye, saying that I must be temperate as to my diet and use neither tea nor coffee."

"I told him it would be almost impossible for me to get and live on what they had given me at the hospital. He replied: 'It is not necessary. As an official here I cannot recommend any private brand of food or drink. As a friend I advise you to try Grape-Nuts, discard all fatty, heating foods as much as possible, especially in the morning.'"

"This advice I have followed, excepting a few times when I have grown careless, but danger signals always come, such as specks and blots before my eyes and some inflammation. You may be certain I go back to what my doctor advised—Grape-Nuts." "There's a Reason."
